

Sanjay Mehta
CEO,
MAIA Intelligence

Sanjay Mehta currently is CEO of MAIA Intelligence since 2006. The company is in enterprise application software product for business intelligence and data visualization. It is written about in media, analyst's reports and winner of several awards due to innovative engineering in visualizing data. Prior to that Sanjay Mehta was MD and founder of Udyog Software India Ltd.

He successfully exited this venture when a US based company wanted to enter in India markets. Sanjay Mehta also had an investment in ERP Services Company called 4Quadrant Solutions where he exited with average returns in 2007. Sanjay Mehta also had an experience of running a dot com company for a very brief stint from 1999-2000 which business failed. Sanjay Mehta also ran a bespoke software solutions company called Globalware in early 90's. He has been in the IT industry since 1993.

Sanjay Mehta is Bachelor of Engineering (Electronics) Graduate Mumbai University and is MCP (Microsoft Certified Professional). He done executive education program from ISB. He is currently secretary for ISB CEE Alumni Mumbai Chapter. He is also secretary of IAMCP (International Association of Microsoft Certified Partners) for India Chapter. He is also a NASSCOM Regional Council Member for West. He has been well networked within CIO community and has supported formation of CIO KLUB.

Sanjay Mehta believes in entrepreneurship and thesis based investment. He is also investor in PE funds. His specialties are to create successful startups and creating software brands and marketing the same. His knowledge of Indian software product market makes him stand out.

Investor Member in Indian Angel Network, Mumbai Angels, Venture Nursery with 18 startups portfolio as on Oct 2013.